

WASHINGTON
DAILY NEWS

OCT 13 1967

DEFECTOR REVEALS ALL

*U.S., German Agents
Smash Red Spy Rings*

By London Express Service

BONN, Oct. 15 — American and West German counter intelligence officials last night were elated over the smashing of two dangerous rings spying for Russia.

One ring, reminiscent of Cicero, the German valet who stole secrets from the safe of the war-time British ambassador in Turkey, had penetrated the

The guard is said to have opened security safes in the embassy to take photo-copies of top secret documents.

The guard, a German known as "Leo," had worked in the French embassy for 19 years.

Before that he served in the French Foreign Legion. His wife worked as a cleaner in the embassy.